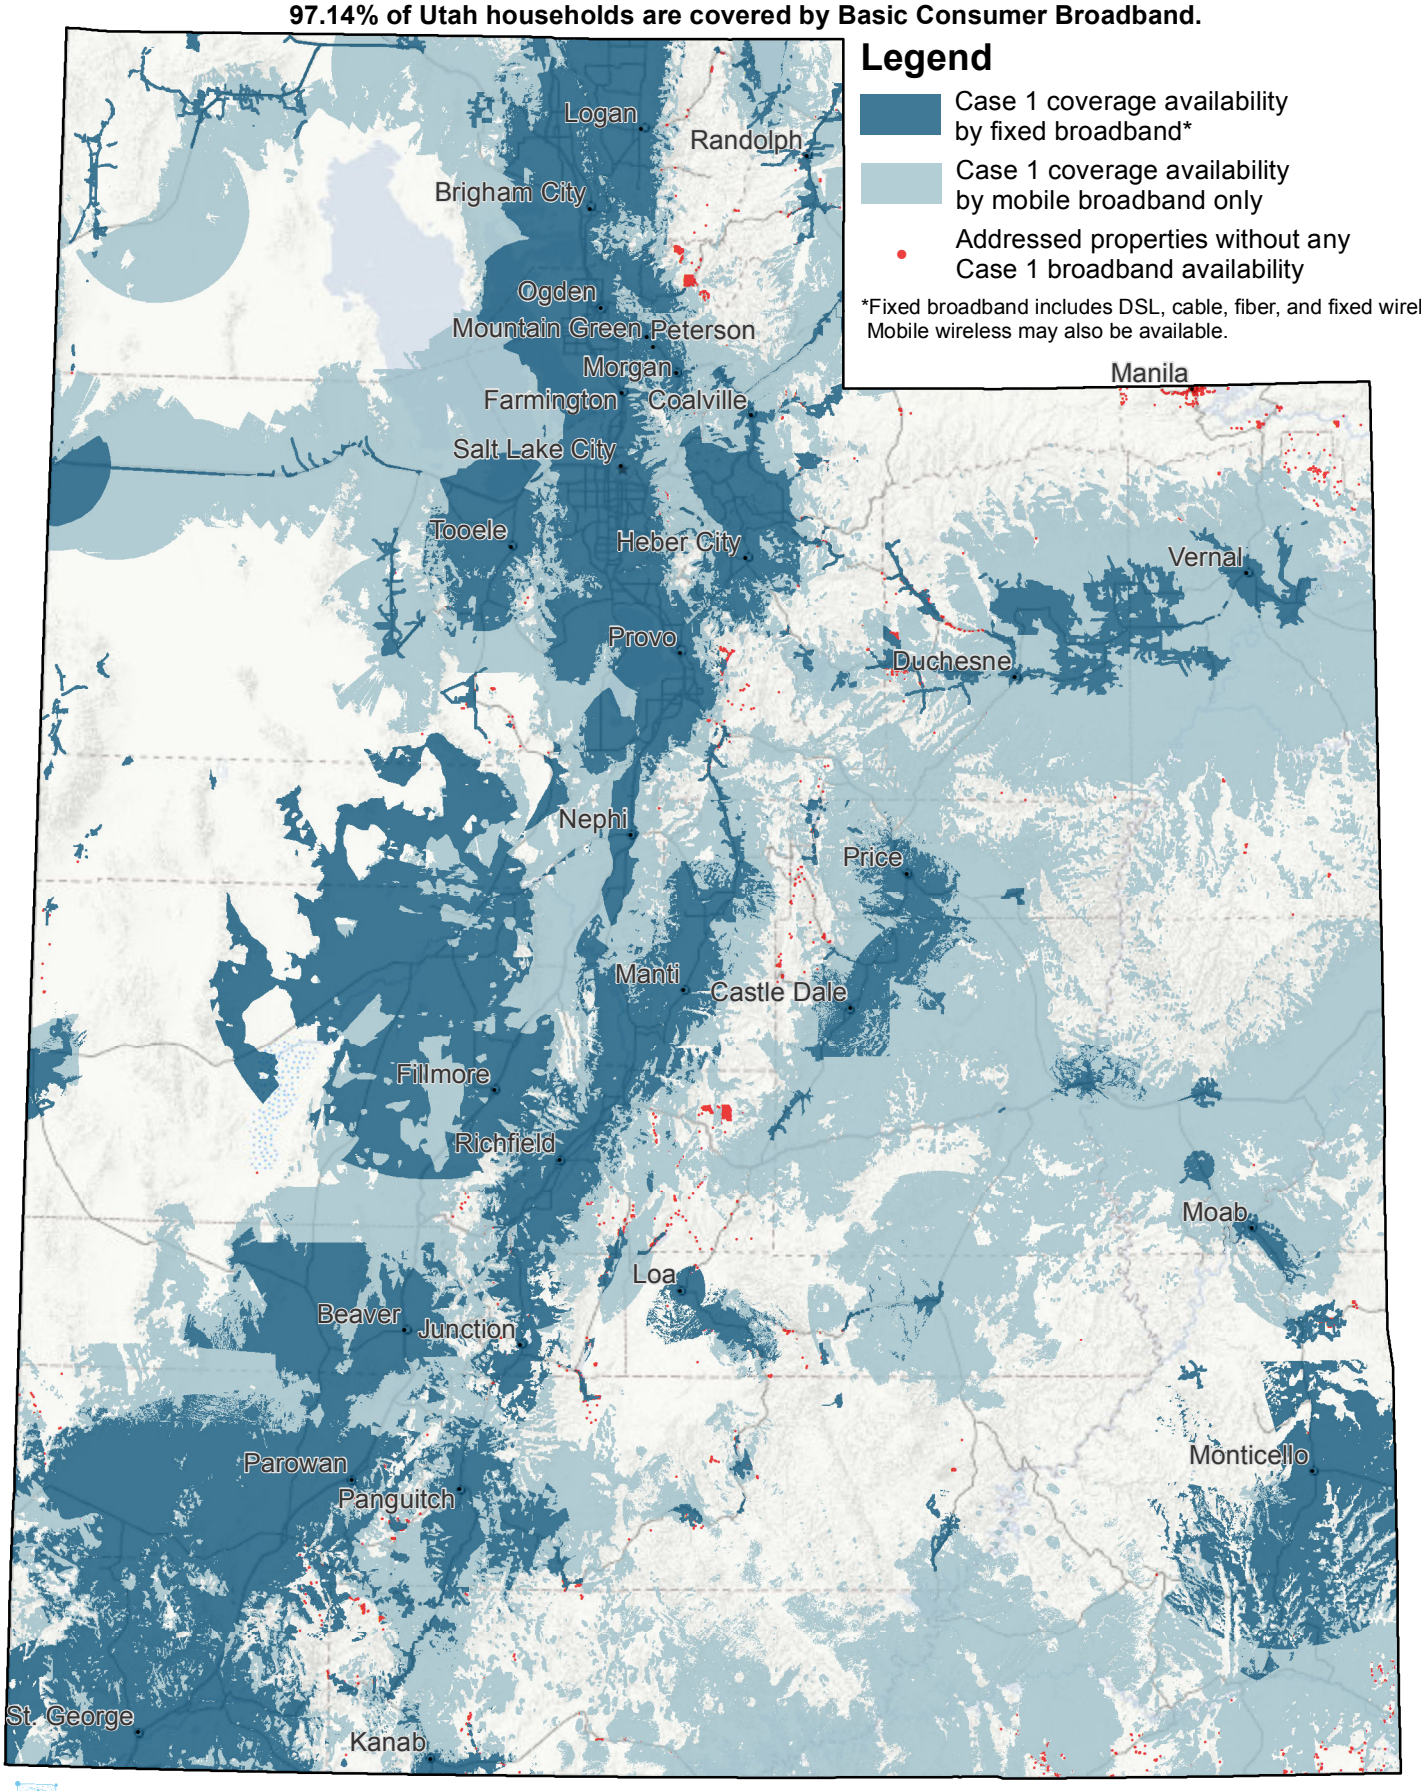
Case 1: Basic Consumer Broadband

Basic Consumer Broadband is defined by residential availability of at least 3 Mbps download and 768 Kbps upload. Allows for basic broadband internet functionality, such as browsing webpages and checking email.

97.14% of Utah households are covered by Basic Consumer Broadband.



THE STATE OF UTAH
BROADBAND PROJECT
BROADBAND.UTAH.GOV

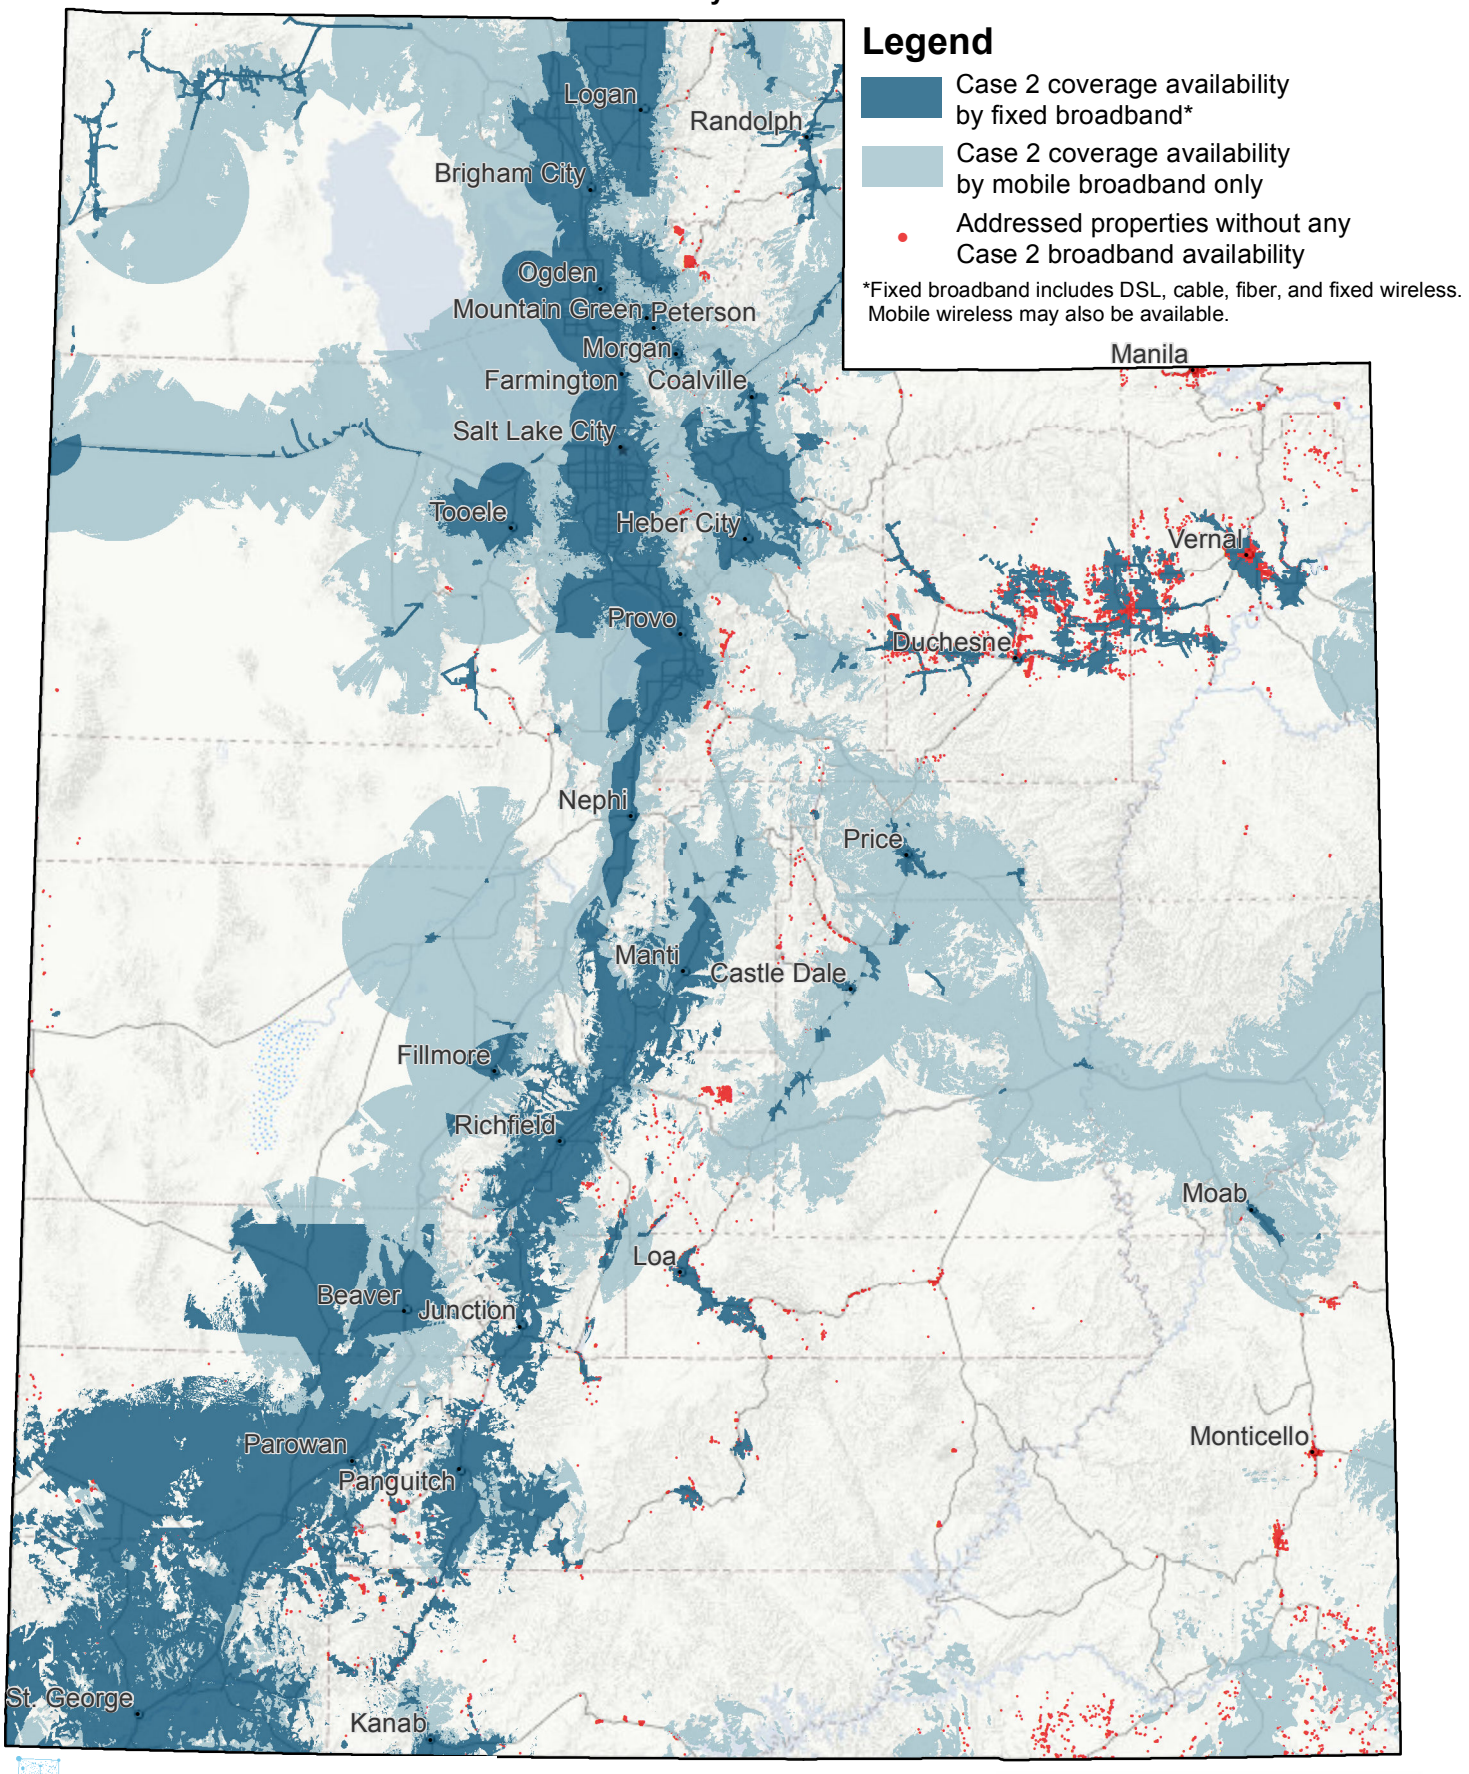
April 14, 2014

UTAH AGRC
Automated Geographic Reference Center

Case 2: Home Office/Education Broadband

Home Office/Education Broadband is defined by residential availability of at least 10 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload. Allows for basic functionality, plus video streaming and photo upload and download.

95.6% of Utah households are covered by Home Office/Education Center Broadband.



THE STATE OF UTAH
BROADBAND PROJECT
BROADBAND.UTAH.GOV

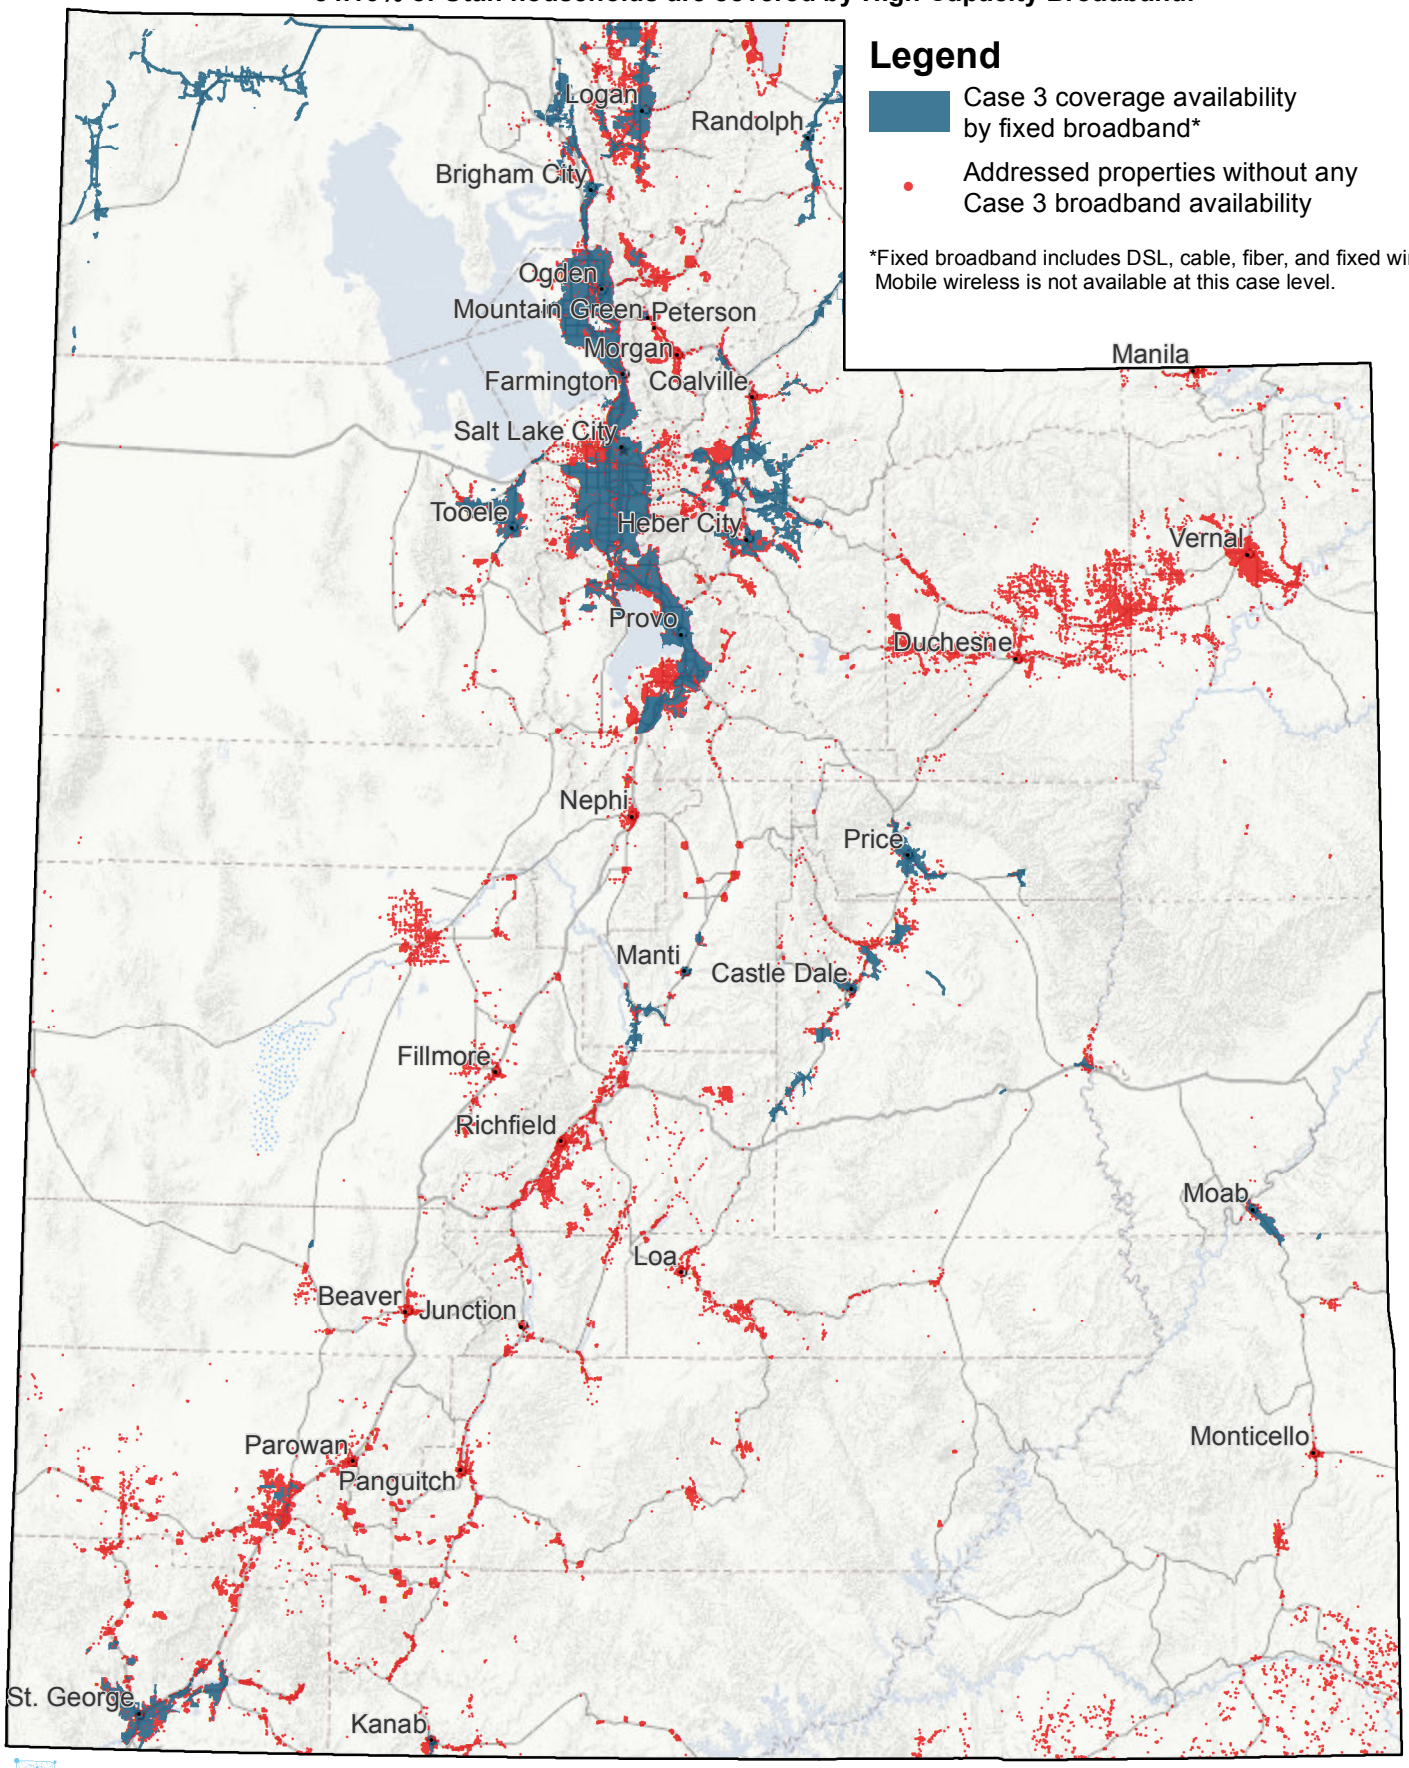
April 14, 2014

UTAH AGRC
Automated Geographic Reference Center

Case 3: High Capacity Broadband

High Capacity is defined by residential availability of at least 25 Mbps download and 10 Mbps upload. These speeds allow for residential and small businesses with high volume usage.

84.16% of Utah households are covered by High Capacity Broadband.



THE STATE OF UTAH
BROADBAND PROJECT
BROADBAND.UTAH.GOV

April 14, 2014

UTAH AGRC
Automated Geographic Reference Center